6:45 Program by Judy Wood and Linda Hayes – Quilting Inspiration

- Judy Wood opened the program with an in-depth explanation of temperature quilts. Items needed to make a temperature are daily diary of temperatures and a key. Linda Hayes announced that there is a free pattern from Fat Quarter Shop. She will send the link out to the guild members.
- Judy Wood continued with Duckworth quilts – an improv log cabin.
- Judy Wood informed the guild about Kawandi - slow stitch by hand quilting.
- Slice quilts – A photograph of scenery, landscapes, houses or buildings, or post card is cut up and each person has to recreate the section of the photo. The finished quilt blocks will then be put back together.
- Using Vintage Linens – An example of Kelly Kline was shown to guild. She uses vintage linens to make pincushions. Rhonda Cox Dort is another quilter who uses vintage linens.
- Color inspirations – Judy Wood discussed how one could use color for quilt inspirations. One example was using wall paper. Another form would be to use all solids. Many other examples were presented.
- Quilted Garments – Linda Hayes showed examples of pieces that she has made and the pattern that she used. She used the Tamarack Jacket Pattern by Grainline Studio.
- Quilted bags – Various examples were shown to guild.
- Christmas Ornaments – examples were shown for our guild challenge.
- Altering Quilt Patterns – Judy encouraged the guild members to change a pattern. Just because a pattern comes one way, don't be afraid to rearrange or change it.
